FYI - Samara Sponsored Event to Benefit TransAction

The Samara Foundation has partnered with the Flynn Center for the Performing Arts to bring the performance "Becoming a Man: Testosterone and Transgression" to the Flynn Space as an evening event after the Translating Identity Conference* at UVM. Samara has also underwritten a pre-performance reception hosted by Vermont TransAction, a state-wide social and human rights organization for transgender Vermonters. For every ticket sold $2 will benefit TransAction and will also be matched by Samara. Samara is proud to be supporting Vermont TransAction and this exciting event. To find more information you can go to www.flynncenter.org.

"Becoming a Man . . . Testosterone and Transgression"

Saturday, November 8 at 8 pm, FlynnSpace

www.flynncenter.org or 802-86-FLYNN

Becoming a Man: Testosterone and Transgression, 8 p.m.
November 8th, at the Flynn Space, 153 Main Street, Burlington. Reception 7-7:45 p.m. at the Flynn's Theater's Amy E.
Tarrant Gallery

A Jew and a Southerner sit down to tell stories about becoming a man . . . well, kind of. What ensues is a night of transgression, digression, and shared laughter (and snacks!) with two internationally-acclaimed writer-performers, S. Bear Bergman and Scott Turner Schofield. Straddling the spectra of gender and sexuality, these two meet at the intersections of straight and gay, butch and femme, fat and skinny, WASP and Jew, North and South, and then collide-with delightfully complex results. For mature audiences.

A discussion with the artists will follow the Performance.

*The Translating Identity Conference is a free student led conference focusing on transgender communities and gender identities. TIC seeks to translate gender identity to both the queer community and its allies. This conference is open to the public, and has about 600 attendees annually. TIC is on Nov. 8th and you can register at www.uvm.edu/~tic.
